

Farmed Cervidae Advisory Committee Agenda Friday, November 13, 2020 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

 Overview of Human Health Concerns Associated with CWD Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 	1.	Welcome	5 mins
- Responsibilities and role of committee members - Update on rulemaking process - Desired outcomes for this meeting 2. Farmed Cervidae Program Compliance Overview Dr. Courtney Wheeler 3. Overview of Human Health Concerns Associated with CWD Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH 4. Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian 5. Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine		•
- Update on rulemaking process - Desired outcomes for this meeting 2. Farmed Cervidae Program Compliance Overview Dr. Courtney Wheeler 3. Overview of Human Health Concerns Associated with CWD Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH 4. Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian 5. Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine		7.0 (1)
- Desired outcomes for this meeting 2. Farmed Cervidae Program Compliance Overview Dr. Courtney Wheeler 3. Overview of Human Health Concerns Associated with CWD Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH 4. Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian 5. Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine		·
 Overview of Human Health Concerns Associated with CWD Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 		,
 Overview of Human Health Concerns Associated with CWD Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 	2.	·	10:35 a.m.
 Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 		Dr. Courtney Wheeler
 Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 	3.	Overview of Human Health Concerns Associated with CWD	10:45 a.m.
 Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian 5. Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids 12 p.m. Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 		Dr. Joni Scheftel, State Public Health Veterinarian, MDH
 Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids 12 p.m. Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 	4.	Review of Updated Proposed Amendments to Rules	11:00 a.m.
 Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids 12 p.m. Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine 		Dr. Linda Glaser, Assistant Director and Farmed Cervidae Program Director
Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine		Dr. Courtney Wheeler, Senior Veterinarian
University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine	5.	Overview of Environmental Contamination of CWD Prions and Risk to Cervids	12 p.m.
		Dr. Peter Larsen, Minnesota Center for Prion Research and Outreach
6 Time Permitting: Public Comments		University of Minnesota, College of Veterinary Medicine
o. Time i erintang, i ubiic comments	6.	Time Permitting: Public Comments
7. Adjournment 12:30 p.i	7.	Adjournment	12:30 p.m.